

Good morning,

I wanted to make you aware that Libra Systems, Inc. has joined the Command Alkon family.

Libra Systems, Inc. is now a wholly owned subsidiary of Command Alkon; this pairs Libra's extensive offerings for asphalt, aggregate and ready mix suppliers with Command Alkon's comprehensive construction materials toolset and CONNEX platform for heavy work. You can view the press release containing the official announcement here.

For associations that Libra Systems, Inc. has historically worked with, Charlene Smith and I will be back in touch in the coming weeks regarding the combination of our memberships.

If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to me.

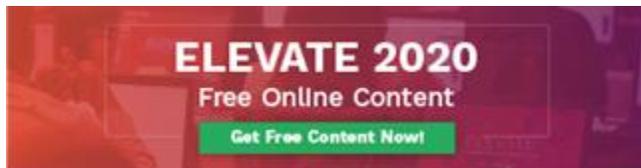

Thank you,

Amber Vines
