Subject: Invitation to 'BCMI Milestone' online event

To:

As we face the reality of Covid-19 and related travel restrictions going into Fall, BCMI has decided to suspend all group meetings until further notice. We sincerely look forward to the next opportunity to see you in person.

In the meantime, we realize you're eager to see what's new! The BCMI Team will be hosting a series of "BCMI Milestone" events online. We'll highlight a different topic in each session, focusing on new development in the BCMI Platform. We invite you to join us for these live demos of what's new in Material Pro and Material Now, and a short-term development outlook.

Join us for a live tour of BCMI Dispatch!

Session I will focus on ready mix dispatch in the BCMI Platform, including new features such as advanced scheduling, first round reports, and counter sales. We'll also give a preview of what's next for near-term development.

This invitation is being sent to all BCMI Champions and primary contacts. Please share it with anyone in your organization who would like a front-row seat to see BCMI's ready-mix dispatch environment.

We will send a conference link to all interested attendees.

Session I

What: Ready-mix Dispatch in the BCMI Platform

When: Wednesday, Sept. 23 @ 2:00 - 4:30pm Central time

Where: GoTo Meeting (RSVP to receive login details)

Who: BCMI producers and friends of the Initiative

We look forward to (virtually) seeing you soon!
