

LEADING CLOUD SOFTWARE PROVIDER FOR THE CONCRETE INDUSTRY

How Can Digital Timekeeping with iStrada® Help You?

Many businesses have benefited from digital timekeeping for years, but many still rely on traditional paper-driven timekeeping, either because they are unaware of their options or because it's how they're used to doing things.

Concrete Producers can save money by eliminating inaccurate clock-in and clock-out times using iStrada's Digital Timekeeping. Managers and administrative staff will no longer have to spend countless hours tabulating timecards and correcting data entry errors, it's all automatic using iStrada.
